

Dorucak

By Novak.R

I wake up in the morning I cant wait for Dorucak

I walk to the kitchen stomach rumbling

Is it going to be pita or polenta

I see my favourite, bacon and I start eating

While eating my big Dorucak I barely gulp it down

I think what other kids have for breakfast

Do they have beans or waffles I think

Do they have a big meal or a little thing they eat fast

I love Dorucak I think it's the most important meal

Whether its pita polenta or bacon

All parts of the world have different breakfast

Serbian breakfast is big and you cannot be mistaken

Serbian breakfast has tons and tons of variety

Like pide with jam sour cream and kabana

It just dawned on me all the breakfast foods Serbians have

And I wonder what do they eat for breakfast in Indiana

Every single country has different breakfast no joke from lentils to waffles

there is too much breakfast food to count for sure maybe some countries for breakfast have beans or maybe a falafel
