From IDEALS to Action: How Round Square Prepares us for Life Beyond School

POSTCARD

We will be investigating the value of the Round Square IDEALS in life after school and beyond.

Are Round Square schools preparing citizens of tomorrow or does it all end at school?

We invite you to investigate real-world examples where you can see the Round Square IDEALS being lived out beyond the school environment, particularly in life after school. These examples might come from workplaces, community initiatives, social movements, leadership roles, entrepreneurship, volunteering, or global action. Consider whether and how the RS IDEALS—Internationalism, Democracy, Environment, Adventure, Leadership, and Service—continue to shape people's choices, values, and actions once they leave school.

We can't wait to have your input on this matter.
