Taking Inspiration from Nature from Leonardo da Vinci to the Present Day

POSTCARD

We are excited to invite your school to our upcoming Round Square Postcard on the theme “NATURE – INSPIRED INNOVATIONS AROUND US”, focusing on how biomimicry – the practice of learning from nature – can inspire sustainable, creative and practical solutions in our daily lives. Through observations and discussions, let us explore natural design influenced innovations around us and how young minds can learn to see nature as a powerful problem solver.

We are looking forward to you joining us on the call !
