ASHBURY COLLEGE

POSTCARD

This conversation invites students to explore how different countries are addressing the lasting impacts of colonization, racism, and historical injustice. The goal is simple: listen, learn, and share perspectives. By hearing from others around the world, students will better understand what reconciliation looks like in different contexts and why it matters.

This experience is about building empathy, awareness, and a shared commitment to a more just and inclusive future.

Please bring your enthusiasm and proactive ideas!
