

A postcard from:

Scarsdale High School

The background features a light beige world map. Overlaid on the map are several golden musical notes and flowing, wavy lines that suggest a global network or the spread of music.

Music As a Teacher

POSTCARD

Do you believe that music can be a powerful teacher? During this Postcard Zoom call, students from around the world will gather to explore how music serves as a medium for personal growth, social connection, and political insight. Before the event, each participant will select and upload a 30-second clip of a song that has taught them a meaningful personal, social, or historical lesson. These shared tracks will serve as a foundation for our discussions. We will share our reflections and discover how music shapes perspectives across different cultures.

We are looking forward to you joining us on the call,

Scarsdale High School
